RICHARD W. WIEKING
CLERK, U.S. DISTRICT COURT
NORTHERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

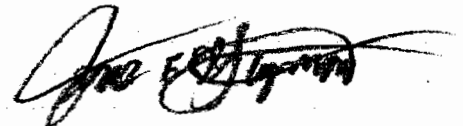

I now know that my deprivation of due process and equal protection under Constitution Amendant 14 has been violated due to a conflict of interest with in San Mateo County rather then any legitimate interest for the State of California. Due process requirements of law are not for the sole benefit of an accused, they are the best insurance for the government itself againts blunders that leave lasting stains on a system of justice. Sokol v Public Utilities Commission. (1966) 65 Cal 2d 381, 58 Cal Rptr 7, 426 P2d 167. Furthermore, Substantive due process prevents governmental power from being used for purposes of oppression, or abuse of government power that shocks the conscience, or action that is legally irrational in that it is not sufficiently keyed to any legitimate state interest.

I have provided an article from the San Mateo County times for federal judges to draw their own conclusions. In my case, a condition of REDWOOD CITY — They don't know how to pay for a new jail, but San Mateo County supervisors indicated Tuesday they probably won't ask the state for any help.

Although county officials originally thought Assembly Bill 900 — state legislation authorizing jail construction funds — could kick in $100 million for the new 500-bed jail, supervisors said they are uncomfortable with "strings" that would be attached to the funds.

For one thing, the state would still own the jail, even if the county runs it. Supervisors worried the state could take back the building at some point, displacing county inmates.

"They're leading us down a path I don't think this county wants to go on," said Supervisor Adrienne Tissier.

Meanwhile, the Board of Supervisors agreed to consider a plan by Sheriff Greg Munks to refurbish and reopen two old jails that would temporarily house prisoners while a new
